CREATE YOUR STAGE NAME

When he crash-lands in Hollywood, Buddy has to make up a new name to pretend to be a human actor. Some real human actors use different names, too—these are called stage names. Create your own stage name by combining your real first name (or a nickname) with a new last name that matches the first letter of your first name.

DESIGN YOUR OWN THEME PARK

In Lights, Camera, Danger, Buddy and Cassidy try to escape from Citizen Cruel by running around the back lot of Universal Studios, where they encounter mechanical dinosaur rides, food stands shaped like ice cream cones, and people walking around in monster costumes. If you could create your own theme park, what would it look like? What rides would it have? What foods would it sell? What would it be called? Draw us a big picture of your own theme park and show us the fun things inside it.
